

FOOTBALL NSW MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release – 6 August, 2008

Cutting Edge Coaching Tips

Football NSW in partnership with Global Ambition Group are excited to announce a new interactive webpage which allows coaches, parents, teachers and players the chance to view detailed curriculum content that will guarantee players learn in a positive environment.

With the increase in player numbers and the implementation of small sided games there are now more grassroots coaches who need support through session plans, curriculums, drills, practices and games that would inspire challenge and educate their players.

This bold initiative goes to the heart of quality coach education and support that will facilitate player development for a large percentage of coaches and players at grassroots levels.

Football NSW and the Global Ambition Group will provide to each club in NSW a free 12 months membership to the www.globalfootballsysteem.com webpage which will provide your club the opportunity to utilize the services and products that are included within the site.

The membership must be designated to one key staff member at the club for example a head coach or technical director.

This will provide detailed session plans for the education of all coaches within the club.

The total of value of membership is $99 (Including GST) for 12 months.

It is also requested the clubs that retain the membership provide a link from their webpage to the www.globalfootballsysteem.com webpage so that interested coaches and players can purchase a subscription to their chosen age group.

In the coming weeks there will be more details released on this exciting new coaching initiative which will ensure that every grassroots coach can access quality innovative support services.
